Brookstone Builders, Inc. Awarded NH Army National Guard Project

MANCHESTER, NH – (October 19, 2017) Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have been selected to perform a renovation project by the NH Army National Guard.

The scope of work involves the renovation of two buildings located on Pembroke Road in Concord, New Hampshire.

Building A involves 1,100 square feet of renovation, inclusive of bath and shower rooms, offices, breakroom, and conference room. Building L involves the renovation of 16,000 square feet, which includes select demolition, roof removal, installation of new blast resistant window glazing, 2 pre-engineered aluminum structural canopies with polycarbonate glazing panels, new energy efficient gas-fired boilers, roof-top air conditioning units, miscellaneous interior renovation and finishes, and related site work.

Jack Boardman will serve as Brookstone Builders' Project Manager.

"We are most pleased to be working with the Army National Guard," said Brookstone Builder's President Paula Scales. "Our work crews are well-experienced in renovation projects, enabling us to provide the enhanced scheduling and safety protocols that are required."

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
