Brookstone Builders, Inc. Welcomes New Project Manager

MANCHESTER, NH (April 22, 2019) – Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that Joshua Gold of Meredith, NH has joined the firm as a Project Manager.

Mr. Gold has over fourteen years of first-hand experience in the commercial construction industry. He has worked as a Project Manager, Safety Officer, and Site Superintendent, during which time he completed a number of substantial construction and renovation projects at locations throughout the region, including the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard, New Boston Air Force Station, and Pease ANG Base.

He studied General Business at the Community College of Rhode Island, has earned a 30-Hour OSHA Certificate, and is certified in CPR & First Aid as well as Construction Quality Management. He has also participated in Asbestos and Lead Paint Awareness Training.

“We’re very happy to welcome Josh to the team,” said Paula Scales, President of Brookstone Builders, Inc. “His successful track record and certifications are well-aligned with our commitments to safety and operational efficiency, and his experience will enable us to effectively-manage a wide range of projects.”

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
