Brookstone Builders, Inc. Welcomes New Project Manager

MANCHESTER, NH (January 20, 2020) – Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that Mark Brockelman has joined the firm as a Project Manager & Safety Officer.

Mr. Brockelman has over 20 years of construction and civil engineering experience on projects ranging in size and scope from basic maintenance and repair to multi-million-dollar capital improvements. His work has included the design, permitting, construction and maintenance of industrial and municipal treatment plants, sub-divisions, recreational facilities, restaurants, hotels, residential home developments, airports, banks, and schools.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering at Clarkson University, Potsdam, NY, and studied Architectural Engineering at New Hampshire Technical Institute; he also holds an OSHA 30 Certificate and has participated in Asbestos Operation Training as well as 40-hour HAZWOPER Training.

“We are very happy to welcome Mark to the team,” said Paula Scales, President of Brookstone Builders, Inc. “His successful track record and solid experience along with his multiple certifications will be great assets.”

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
