Brookstone Builders, Inc. Awarded NH Army National Guard Project

MANCHESTER, NH (August 30, 2019) – Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have been awarded a renovation project by the State of New Hampshire Department of Transportation.

The project will involve the interior renovation of approximately 5,000 square-feet of space in the N.H. Army National Guard’s Meddet building in Concord, resulting in expanded and updated clinical and office space.

The scope of work will include select demolition; new walls, ceilings and floors; new windows; new electrical systems; plumbing; and finish work.

Roger Landry will serve as Brookstone Builders’ Project Manager.

“We have always valued our business relationship with the State of New Hampshire,” said Paula Scales, President of Brookstone Builders, Inc. “We’re pleased to once again be working with the N.H. Army National Guard as well, as their streamlined operational and communication processes tend to facilitate straightforward, on-time project completions.”

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
