Brookstone Builders, Inc. Awarded State of NH Renovation Project

MANCHESTER, NH – (May 13, 2021) Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have been awarded a renovation project by the State of New Hampshire Department of Corrections.

The project will involve the renovation of sixteen bathrooms at the State Prison in Concord, New Hampshire.

The scope of work will include select demolition and the installation of new epoxy flooring and stainless-steel shower enclosures.

Mark Brockelman will serve as Brookstone Builders' Project Manager, and the project's architect will be SMRT Architects & Engineers of Portland, Maine.

"We are very happy to have received this project award from the State of New Hampshire," said Brookstone Builder's President Paula Scales. "Our business relationship has spanned many years and we appreciate their straightforward communication protocols and consistent work processes."

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
