Brookstone Builders, Inc. Welcomes Assistant Project Manager

MANCHESTER, NH (October 29, 2020) – Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that Sean Scales has joined the firm as an Assistant Project Manager.

Mr. Scales first learned the construction trade at Brookstone Builders during his high school and college years, working his way through the ranks from carpenter to assistant site supervisor. As Assistant Project Manager his responsibilities will now include site visits, estimating, various aspects of project control and documentation.

Prior to rejoining Brookstone Builders Mr. Scales enjoyed a successful career as a commercial pilot in the airline industry. In addition to a bachelor's degree in Aviation Management from Daniel Webster College, he has participated in Leadership, Public Relations, First Aid and CPR training programs, and holds a 30-hour OSHA certificate.

"We are very happy to welcome Sean back to the team," said Paula Scales, President of Brookstone Builders, Inc. "His diverse background, positive attitude and teambuilding skills will be important factors in maintaining team cohesion and will help us to further improve our project management processes.

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
