Brookstone Builders, Inc. Names Sean Scales Vice President

MANCHESTER, NH (April 18, 2022) – Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that Sean Scales has been appointed company Vice President.

Mr. Scales first learned the construction trade at Brookstone Builders during his high school and college years, working his way through the ranks from carpenter to assistant site supervisor. After twenty years as a commercial airline pilot, he rejoined the family business in 2020 working in a management role. As Sean takes on the daily management of Brookstone Builders, he is committed to continuing the high standards of quality and safety that the company has adhered to over the past thirty-eight years.

“I know Sean will be successful in his leadership role,” said Paula Scales, President of Brookstone Builders, Inc. “In addition to solidifying our long-term succession plan, his diverse background, honesty, positive attitude and teambuilding skills will be important factors in maintaining team cohesion while growing the firm.”

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, with a strong focus on health care, biopharma, manufacturing, commercial office space, and government facilities. The firm has also developed significant expertise in specialty and renovation projects that are performed in and around occupied space, which require enhanced planning, scheduling, and safety protocols.
